

Introduction 11

Chapter 1. Practical dimension of research on public finances 17

1. Premises for disciplining public finances in the European Union 19
2. Measures undertaken by the European Union to discipline public finances 22
3. Research thesis 25
4. Verification methods 27
 - 4.1. A qualitative and quantitative approach 27
 - 4.2. Fiscal consolidation as the basic tool for disciplining public finances 29
 - 4.3. Budget balance and types of fiscal policy 31
 - 4.4. Methods of examining the relationship between budget balance and macroeconomic variables 33
 - 4.5. The matter of non-Keynesian effects of fiscal policy during the crisis 35
 - 4.6. Method for testing the economic potential of EU countries 36
 - 4.7. Convergence or economic divergence in Europe 37
5. Time scope of the study 38
6. Country selection criteria – case studies 40

Chapter 2. Concepts of fiscal consolidation 45

1. Definitional difficulties 47
2. Controversies over the concept of fiscal consolidation 48
 - 2.1. Problem of the starting point of consolidation 48
 - 2.2. Choice of consolidation strategy and macroeconomic effects 50
 - 2.3. Measuring consolidation 53
 - 2.4. Criteria for assessing the effects of consolidation 55
3. Dilemma regarding the choice of consolidation instruments 55
4. Assessing the sustainability of fiscal consolidation in selected EU countries 59
5. Summary 63

Chapter 3. Fiscal supervision as an element of new economic governance in the European Union 65

1. Treaty bases for coordination of the Member States' economic and budgetary policies 67

2. Evolution of fiscal supervision 1992–2005	71
3. Fiscal supervision as an element of new economic governance	77
3.1. General concept of change	77
3.2. New requirements for budgetary frameworks of member states	81
3.3. Action undertaken to strengthen the surveillance of budgetary positions and the surveillance and coordination of economic policies	83
3.4. Action to speed up and clarify the excessive deficit procedure	87
3.5. Enforcement of budgetary surveillance in the euro area	90
3.6. Mechanism for preventing and correcting macroeconomic imbalances	91
3.7. Enforcement of correction of excessive macroeconomic imbalances in the euro area	94
4. Further attempts to strengthen fiscal supervision	95
4.1. The Fiscal Compact	95
4.2. 'The two-pack'	97
5. Assessment of the reform of the economic governance in the EU	102
6. Conclusion	114

Chapter 4. Austerity as a tool of fiscal consolidation – theoretical and empirical perspective 115

1. Introduction	117
2. Historical debate	122
3. Neoliberalism and financialization	128
4. Macroeconomic performance	131
5. The justification for austerity	136
6. Economic crisis and fiscal policy	143
7. The ideological foundations of supply side economics	153
8. Brexit and its implications for the UK	161
9. Conclusion	164

Chapter 5. Efforts of fiscal consolidation in the United Kingdom 167

1. Introduction – background of the study	169
1.1. The sovereign debt crisis and financial stability	171
1.2. The United Kingdom's Fiscal Stability Code	171

1.3. The Maastricht Treaty and fiscal rules	172
2. The pre-crisis overview	175
2.1. Macroeconomic imbalances in the UK	175
2.2. State of public finances before the crisis	178
2.3. Budgetary forecast before the crisis	179
3. Analysis of the financial crisis period	180
3.1. Public sector net debt	182
3.2. Relative projections and economic performances	183
3.3. Output gap and real GDP	185
3.4. The structural deficit	186
4. Efforts of fiscal consolidation	188
4.1. Policy implementation under Labour government	188
4.2. Policy changes under coalition government	189
4.3. Policy effects on the UK economy	192
4.4. The UK's public finances and Brexit	194
4.4.1. The mechanical effect	194
4.4.2. The national income effect	195
5. The policy decision and summary	196
 Chapter 6. Fiscal consolidation in the Federal Republic of Germany	199
1. Characteristics of fiscal policy in the Federal Republic of Germany 1999–2007	201
2. Reforms in the public expenditure system	217
3. Changes in the public revenue system in the years 1999–2007	220
4. Characteristics of fiscal policy in the Federal Republic of Germany 2008–2015	224
4.1. State interventionism in response to the crisis: 2008–2010	224
4.2. Savings policy implemented by the Federal Republic of Germany in 2011–2015	231
5. German fiscal policy and the business cycle	235
6. The problem of common monetary policy	242
7. Socio-economic effects of the fiscal policy of the Federal Republic of Germany	247
8. Summary	252

Chapter 7. Fiscal consolidation strategies in Hungary 255

1. Introduction 257
2. Excessive deficit in Hungary and scenarios for its correction 258
3. Medium-term budgetary objective 264
4. Public debt in Hungary 266
5. Instruments for disciplining public finances on the expenditure side 269
6. Scenarios of expenditure adjustments and their implementation 272
7. Instruments for disciplining public finances on the revenue side 276
8. Scenarios of revenue adjustments and their implementation 281
9. Institutional changes favouring fiscal consolidation 288
10. Evaluation of fiscal consolidation 289
11. Economic effects of fiscal consolidation 292
12. Macroeconomic imbalances in Hungary in the period of fiscal consolidation attempts 299
 - 12.1. Internal imbalances 299
 - 12.2. External imbalances 302
13. Conclusions 303

Chapter 8. Strategies of fiscal consolidation in Poland 305

1. Introduction 307
2. Fiscal consolidation in Poland in 2003–2008 308
 - 2.1. Adaptation measures to the nominal fiscal convergence criterion 308
 - 2.2. Changes on the revenue side of government institutions sector and local government 320
 - 2.3. Actions to reduce public spending 323
3. Impact of 1999 pension reform on the condition of public finances in the period 2004–2015 329
4. Fiscal policy in Poland in response to the global financial and economic crisis 338
 - 4.1. New solutions adopted in the Public Finance Act of 2009 338
 - 4.2. Disciplining public finances in Poland after launching the excessive deficit procedure in 2009 344
5. Summary 358

Chapter 9. Testing the dynamic relationships between the public financial sector deficit and the macroeconomic variables in selected EU countries 361

1. Description of the testing procedure 363
 2. Dynamic modelling results in selected EU economies 366
 - 2.1. Poland 369
 - 2.2. The United Kingdom 371
 - 2.3. Hungary 371
 - 2.4. Germany 373
 - 2.5. France 374
 - 2.6. Sweden 375
 3. Analysis of the impulse response function 377
 4. The results of Granger causality test 383
 5. Summary 386
- Annex 387

Chapter 10. The impact of the financial crisis on the distribution of total power across the member states of the European Union 395

1. Introduction 397
2. The measurement of power and its distribution in the European Union 399
 - 2.1. The applicability of the power model and its core components 399
 - 2.2. The distribution of power in the European Union 406
 - 2.3. Total power and stability at the onset of the recession in the EU 410
3. Shifts in the stability of total power 413
 - 3.1. The position during the recession 413
 - 3.2. The position after the recession 418
 - 3.3. Economic potential and public spending in the Baltic states 421
4. The impact of the crisis on the Baltic states and their fiscal responses 422
 - 4.1. Changes in GDP output from 2006 to 2014 422
 - 4.2. Changes in the structure of total power and its causes – Poland and the Baltic states 424
 - 4.3. Drivers of growth and debt compared 427
5. Conclusion 429

Chapter 11. Process of economic convergence of European countries 433

1. Initial remarks 435
2. Models for cross-section and time-series variables configuration 436
3. Methods for stratified analysis 441
4. Initial analysis of GDP per capita ratios variation in European countries in 1950–2015 444
5. Analysis of moveable dynamics indexes for GDP per capita ratios in European countries 449
6. Analysis of the ranking of European countries by GDP per capita ratios in selected years 452
7. Summary 457

Chapter 12. Options for disciplining public finances – synthesis 459

1. Condition of public finances as a result of various factors 461
2. Assessment of the impact of fiscal stimulus on public finances in the European Union countries 462
3. Convergence or divergence – research results 467
4. Case study on the assessment of disciplining public finances in the surveyed countries 468
5. Evaluation of fiscal consolidations 486
6. Evaluation of the role of new public governance in disciplining public finances 493
7. Variants for achieving public finance discipline – conclusions for Poland 498

Annex 503

Bibliography 509